

RevITup™ Business Care Quarterly Technology Grant Review for 501(c)3 Nonprofits – Q1-2013

The Launch Pad's RevITup™ Business Care Nonprofit Series provides complete IT solutions for nonprofit organizations including service protection and proactive monitoring of all key functions on the network, servers and workstations. It is designed to provide your organization with a fixed-cost solution, predictable investment and optimal productivity.

The Launch Pad's Technology Team has been serving the needs of nonprofit and community service organizations since 1992. We offer a broad range of discounted, fixed-fee technology services designed to help nonprofit organizations meet their technology needs within their budget. We also offer a no-cost Technology Road-Mapping Service and offer this RevITup™

Business Care Quarterly Technology Grant Review. For more information, please visit: www.launchpadonline.com.

1. Acclinet

http://www.acclinet.com/tech_grant.asp

Acclinet presents free Sun server and workstation equipment to college students and teachers learning or teaching UNIX and open-source technologies as well as nonprofit organizations dedicated to bettering the lives of children. To qualify, applicants must provide details about their organization, the type of equipment needed and its intended use. Applications can be submitted on the web site, via e-mail or by postal mail.

2. ESA Foundation

<http://www.esafoundation.org/>

The ESA Foundation, a philanthropic vehicle of the Entertainment Software Association, is dedicated to supporting programs that make a difference in the lives of America's youth. The foundation is accepting grant applications from nonprofit organizations that provide programs and services utilizing technology and/or computer and video games to educate America's youth and young adults (ages 7 to 18).

3. The Foundation Center

<http://foundationcenter.org/>

The Foundation Center provides an extensive source of information on foundation and corporate giving, as well as other areas of interest to non-profits. They publish a wide array of reference books, directories and analyses. Their Web site includes electronic reference desk, online librarians, donor databases, articles, news services and more.

4. Good360

<http://about.good360.org>

The Good360 mission is to fulfill the needs of nonprofits with corporate product donations. Driven by a vision that demands constant innovation the Good360 leverages the latest technological and social networking developments to create online solutions to strengthen nonprofits and expand corporate citizenship.

5. GTECH Computer Labs for After-School Programs

http://www.gtech.com/about_gtech/proposal_guidelines.asp

The GTECH After School Advantage program provides non-profit agencies with state-of-the art, Internet ready computer centers. For each After School Advantage program, GTECH donates an average of $15,000 in state-of-the-art computers, online technology, software, and volunteer hours. More than 90 After School Advantage computer centers are already successfully operating across the United States. Since the first GTECH After School Advantage computer lab was opened in April 1999, more than 20,000 children between the ages of 5-18 have gained access to computers.

6. Hewlett Packard Microenterprise Development Program

http://www.hp.com/hpinfo/socialinnovation/focus.html?jumpid=reg_r1002_usen

Hewlett Packard (HP) has funded hundreds of initiatives through its Microenterprise Development Program with over a billion in cash and products to help nonprofits create and support digital learning environments. The program's mission is to "improve economic viability and quality of life" by providing technology that helps further economic development, promote entrepreneurialism, support "the growth of microenterprises in underserved communities" and provide training and support to small businesses through technology.

7. Network for Good - Technology Funding

<http://www.fundraising123.org/>

An ePhilanthropy portal dedicated to helping nonprofit organizations further their mission by integrating the full power of the online medium into their own operations such as fundraising, recruitment and advocacy.

8. Progressive Technology Project

<http://www.progressivetech.org/>

Progressive Technology Project (PTP) was founded by grassroots organizers to support social change and community-led organizing in low income communities and communities of color. Their mission is to help community-led organizations achieve their goals more effectively and efficiently. Their programs help community organizers build their skills and understanding to integrate technology into the work of the organizations.

9. TechFoundation

<http://www.techfoundation.org/>

TechFoundation has created programs to assist nonprofits capture the benefits of technology and innovation including a business-to-nonprofit program for donated hardware, software, and services, educational technology seminars geared for nonprofits, hands-on technology assistance, and transitional assistance for migration to cloud-based NPO computing.

10. Tech Soup

www.techsoup.org

TechSoup.org offers nonprofits a one-stop resource for technology needs by providing free information, resources and support. Nonprofits can access donated and discounted technology products through their product philanthropy service, TechSoup Stock.